

I do not want you to make a federal law which will diminish the effectiveness of the Indiana law with regard to telephone privacy. Telemarketers were taking away the telephone. Now most calls are from those individuals with whom I wish to speak.

Thank you.

Richard Peck